

FLS GENERAL CAMP RULES

(Parent to keep)

1. Texas Camp Rules requires all medications to be listed on the Registration/Medical Release form, registered with the FLS medical staff and taken to the Health Center. All medications must be in the original bottle and/or container. Medications will be administered as per RX label instructions and dosage, unless written, signed and dated parental instructions state otherwise. A completed Medication Administration Form must be provided with medications. Campers are not to share any medications, including over-the-counter medications.
2. Texas Camp Rules requires Campers who are ill or injured be either in the FLS camp office, medical clinic, or hospital. In the event of illness or injury, campers will not be permitted to remain in the bunkhouse rooms.
3. Texas Camp Rules requires Campers 18 years and younger be under adult supervision at all times while on campus. At no time is a camper to go to the pool without adult supervision.
4. Texas Camp Rules will not allow drugs, alcohol, any form of tobacco, firearms, knives, or any kind of weapon, matches or fireworks to be brought to camp.
5. Texas Camp Rules will not allow Campers to leave FLS Camp without proper parental written authorization and approval of FLS Administrative Staff.
6. Texas Camp Rules will not allow Campers to bring pets on campus. Only Certified Service animals are allowed.
7. Prank supplies are not allowed in the dorms, (i.e. shaving cream, body paint, water balloons, water guns/blasters, etc). There are no exceptions.
8. Camper should not bring the following to camp: cell phone, iPod, MP3 player, video games, CD player, television, laptop computer, play station or any other type of electronic games or equipment, keepsake or valuable jewelry, collectible or memorabilia sportswear. FLS Camp will not be responsible for the misplacing or theft of camper personal property.
9. Skateboards, longboards, rollerblades, and Heely roller shoes are not allowed.
10. Guests are discouraged from bringing food items. Snacks will attract ants in the dorms. We suggest that if you bring snacks, the food be stored in tightly sealed containers, such as plastic storage containers or zip-lock plastic bags. No electric appliances to be used for food preparation are allowed. The FLS Concession stand will be open throughout the day and each evening.
11. Campers (students and adults) are expected to reflect a Christian example by their dress. Sponsors, parents, and church leaders are responsible for the clothing and appearance of the youth and adults attending camp. The manner of dress should be set and clearly communicated prior to leaving home. Modest skirts, dresses, shorts and jeans are acceptable in worship. Immodest short shorts or tops, small tank tops, tight clothes, spaghetti strap tops, distasteful designs or messages, cheer shorts and other extreme clothes are not acceptable at any time. Shorts should be worn over tight yoga style pants. Shorts must be longer than the arm and hand when extended down the side of the person. One-piece swimsuits are preferred. All others require a dark colored t-shirt to be worn over them at all times, including while in the water.

Campers may be asked to change their attire if an adult or FLS staff feels their dress is inappropriate.

12. Refrain from public display of affection with others.
13. Under NO circumstances are girls to be in boy dorms, or boys in girl dorms.
14. No fighting or inappropriate/profane language is allowed.
15. Students are to respect all adult leaders and follow their instructions. All adults-members of FLS leadership team, church leadership teams, and adult volunteers-are in places of authority over all students. FLS staff and volunteers have been trained to facilitate each activity.
16. Campers must attend all scheduled events. (If your group is in an activity, whether in the classroom or on the athletic field, you must be with them.) There are no exceptions to this unless the camper is injured or sick and are at the FLS Health Center, doctor's office or hospital.
17. Camper MUST be in the bunkhouse by designated camp curfew. Curfew is for the safety and well-being of campers and staff.
18. Each Camper will be issued a nametag upon arrival, which is to be worn at all times. Nametags are required at the Health Center before a camper can be given medical attention or medication.
19. Campers and/or church group leadership will be held financially responsible for any property damages that occur during their stay at FLS. Campers should refrain from writing on furniture or walls. Do not use duct tape to affix signs to doors or walls.
20. For your safety, guests are not allowed on any FLS "Restricted" property areas.
