PERSONAL STATEMENT GUIDELINES

As part of your application to the BSW Program, you are required to submit a 2-3 page typed personal statement. This is your opportunity to help the Social Work Program faculty understand who you are, why you're applying, and what you bring to the profession.

Your statement should be typed and double-spaced, approximately 2 to 3 pages in length, and written in your own words with honesty and reflection.

Please respond to the following questions in your statement:

1. Why do you want to pursue social work?
2. What experience influenced this decision?
3. What social justice or service issue matters to you?
4. What strengths do you bring to the profession?
5. Any challenges or growth you have experienced?

This statement is a key part of your application and helps us understand your readiness for the social work profession. Take your time and be thoughtful.

I certify that the information I have provided in this application is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that withholding or falsifying information on this application is sufficient cause for denial of admission or dismissal from the program once admitted. Information submitted with this application will be kept in individual student files under double lock. Access to individual student files will be limited to the Social Work Program faculty/staff and the Social Work Program Admissions Committee. Individual social work students may access all information in their own files excluding any personal recommendations that have been denoted for non-release. The information submitted will be used by the Social Work Program Admissions Committee in making decisions regarding acceptance to and/or continuation in the program and by program faculty for advisement of individual students.
